Pure Milk. [ANDING

The business of the country is settling into its former groove. Our gentlemanly driver has returned from his vacation, the cows in the pasture switch flies instead of bulets with their tails and the cream is richer in consequence. We believe we have satisfied every one of our customers who have taken milk from us and we are in a position to supply a great many more. The peopl who from choice or necessity visited Waialae during the past two weeks have had an opportunity to see just what sort of diet our stock feeds upon, and no longer wonder at the richness of the milk from our dairy.

Our facilities for delivery are the best. With the exception of a day or two early in the late unpleasant ness our drivers have always been on time at our customers' residences. We take this opportunity to thank those who have been patient with us and to solicit a continuance of their patronage. We will be pleased to fill all orders telephoned to us and guarantee all milk to be pure and

It Was Almost Decided to Throw the Gans Into the Sea

> FOURTH DAY. Afternoon Session

George Townsend, sworn, states:

Am 39 years of age; been a seafaring man for a time; on Dec. 8 Charles Clark told witness that Sam Nowein wanted to see him; saw Nowlein in rear of Bertelmann's office; Nowlein told witness to go to the Empire corner, meet Warren a few minutes before 5, and go on the tramear as far as it went; witness and Warren were to meet a boy with two horses below the Mausoleum; did not see boy with horses until 7 o'clock that evening; went to John Little Little island near Makapuu; Friday before Christmas Liilii gave witness six sticks of lights and a mail for the captain of the schooner; sighted the schooner on Dec. 19; there were Warren, Kawelo, Kauli, Kamaka and witness; the schooner showed blue light and was answered; went out on boat and nearing the schooner, the captain sang out, "Password!" witness answered, "Missionary," and was told to come alongside; the captain asked for a letter and was handed Seward's letter; two boxes of revolvers were taken from the schooner and put in the boat; captain did not give witness any letter to deliver to anybody in town; witness sent Kauli into town to let the people know that they had met a schooner; name of schooner is Uhiberg, hailing from San Francisco; witness came to town and reported to Nowlein on Dec. 21; Nowlein told witness to go with Captain Davies on the steamer Waimanalo and help land the arms; the Waimanalo was to meet the schooner and report at Rabbit Island. the news would be transmitted to town; returning they were to pick up a whaleboat near Diamond Head; arms were to be lauded at Kakaako and also at the Fishmarket; the Waimanalo did not leave that evening but succeeded in getting away the next evening, Friday; a package of whisky was taken on board and sampled; Nowlein sent two letters to Captain Davies to be opened when the Waimanalo got outside; one contained instructions to Capt. Davies to go due northeast of Rabbit Island and meet schooner; the second letter was a copy of a letter to the captain of the schooner; it said that the schooner was to cruise off Rabbit Island 15 days, and if she met no steamer to go to the south-the arms ready on deck for shipment; witness handed the letter to the captain; it required two boat-loads to transfer all the arms; the captain reemed to be a Swede; went to Rabbit Island and reported hav-ing secured the arms; Kauli came into town to report; met whaleboat below Diamond Head and W. H. Rickard boarded the steamer; Rickard said that nothing could be done, as the people on shore were not ready; Rickard asked how many guns were on board; was told there sere about 288 guns; besides belts and cartridges; Captain Davies said that the steamer could not get into the Fishmarket, as the dredger was is the way; all this was noted in a letter and Rickard sent it ashore t rough Pus; steamer went to sea a id found the coal supply was running short; Wilcox came out in a cance on Thursday night and said that no landing could be made at Kakaako, as the place was guarded; a boat load of coal was sent out and Rickard went ashore; the captain was then told to land the arms at the best point he thought; the arms were put into two boats and stowed below Diamond Head, and later unearthed and used in the revolution; they were Winchesters; the Waimanalo returned to port, witness and Warren coming ashore; Warren had been taken from the schooner; witness took charge of the Waimanalo for a while; the crew was composed of Captain Davies, W. Hutchison, Geo. Townsend, a Norwegian and a ern coast and dispose of cargo; the Waimanalo left at 7 o'clock

p. m. Friday, went to Kaneohe and Waimanalo, then went about forty miles to sea, and on Tuesday morning about 8 o'clock saw the
